WEDDINGS

Thompson-Parks.

A very beautiful wedding was solemnized at Trimble, Tenn., Tuesday evening, when Mr. Emerson E. Parks gave in marriage his daughter, Eva, to Mr. Leland William Thompson, of Los Angeles, Cal.

The handsome Parks residence, "The Maples," was a bower of magnificent flowers, artistically arranged. The columns in the wide colonial hall were entwined with ropes of anemones and baskets of sweet peas and peonies were placed upon the railings between them.

The dining room was also profusely decorated with sweet peas and peonies, and the table presented a beautiful picture, draped with a bridal veil, which was caught with maiden hair fern and valley lilies. In the center of the table was a beautiful bride's cake with a cunning bride Kewpie posed on top.

In the living room was the altar, where the wedding was solemnized. It was composed of a screen of anemones and pink roses, with ropes of the anemones extending to the tall baskets on each side, which were filled with Easter lilies and pink peonies, and also with filmy pink and white tulle bows.

The bride was lovely in her exquisite bridal robes of moon glow satin, which was fashioned in draped model with a girle of handsome silver brocade. Her tulle veil was caught around her neck with a wreath of orange blossoms she carried a beautiful shower bouquet of valley lilies and orchids.

The maid of honor, Miss Carolyn Smythe, of Memphis, wore a beautiful frock of pink chiffon tulle and lace, and a picture hat of white tulle and ostrich. She carried a colonial bouquet of sweet peas, snapdragons and maiden-hair fern.

The matron of honor, Mrs. A. G. Rhodes, of Union City, Tenn., was charming in a lovely frock of white tulle, silk, strewn with a quaint design of pink and blue roses, with a picture hat of pink tulle, with bands of ostrich. She carried a cunning colonial bag of pink tulle and ostrich.

The bridesmaids, Miss "Dore" Parks, also of Union City, was lovely in a similar frock of white, with the picture hat of pink tulle and ostrich, and also carried the little colonial bag.

Little David Mynders Smythe, of Memphis, was a cunning rascal. He was adorable in a David Copperfield suit of pink satin, and white crepe de chine, and carefully fulfilled his mission, carrying the ring in a tiny box.

The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Will Parks, brother of the bride, as best man, and Messrs. Buckley, Kimbrough and Spencer Millard groomsmen.

Preceding the ceremony a number of beautiful musical selections were rendered by Mr. Angelo Cortese, a master of the harp, whose playing is always delightful. Two beautiful vocal selections, "At Dawning and One Fine Day," from "Madam Butterfly," were

BEAUTIFUL NASHVILLE GIRL TO ATTEND FLOWER QUEEN

MISS EVELINA KENNER.

Miss Evelina Kenner, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Kenner, of Nashville, Tenn., who was appointed by Gov. Roberts as one of the two Tennessee girls to be maid of honor to Miss Maude Renkert, the queen of flowers for the Memphis Centennial celebration.

Miss Kenner is one of the leaders of the Nashville society set, and has a host of friends throughout the state.

rendered by Miss Alma Perry, of Dyersburg, Tenn., Mendelssohn's wedding march was played for the entrance of the wedding party.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and the Rev. W. C. Seiler, of Trimble, officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left at a late hour for New Orleans, where they will remain for several days before going to Los Angeles, where they will make their home. The bride is a graduate of the University of Tennessee.

Among prominent Tennesseans who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lawrence, of Memphis; Mrs. Lewis Gammon, of Indianapolis, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. C. Jackson, of Union City, Tenn.; Miss Miriam Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. J. Waddell, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Cobb, all of Union City; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Taylor, of Newbern; Mr. Hammer Scott, of Dyersburg; Mrs. Harry Calcutt, of Dyersburg; Mr. Harry Harper, of Union City; Miss Margaret Parks, of Union City; Mrs. W. Bedford, of Memphis.

Mrs. Thompson is a lovely young woman, whose charming personality has won scores of friends, both in Memphis and throughout West Tennessee.

A very pretty morning wedding, which was solemnized at 6 o'clock Wednesday at the St. Mary's Catholic church, was that of Miss Edith Marie Perry, the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Perry, and Mr. Charles W. Lauranson, the Rev. Father Basil officiating in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives of the young couple.

The bride wore a most attractive suit of blue tulle with a picture hat of blue tulle and ostrich. Her flowers were a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and forget-me-nots.

The bridegroom was attended by Charles Perry, brother of the bride, as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lauranson left for an Eastern trip. They will be at home to their many friends after June 1 at 465 Meigs avenue.

Snowden School.

The splendid meeting of the Snowden Parent-Teacher association Tuesday afternoon was opened by the president, Mrs. M. A. Whitten, in her usual graceful manner. The first number on the very interesting program for the day was a duet, "Beautiful Ohio," rendered by Mrs. J. G. Bailey and Mrs. J. A. Scott, whose beautiful voices blended in exquisite harmony. They were accompanied by Mrs. Frank Sturm, Snowden's official accompanist, and were appreciatively encouraged.

There followed a report of the year's work by Mrs. Butterfield, who has made a most efficient secretary for the past year, and two most enjoyable readings by a talented pupil of Snowden school, Miss Katherine Lockwood.

After this program came the election of officers to serve for the coming year. All officers except Mrs. Satterfield, who refused to serve again on account of other duties, were re-elected, and so the responsibilities and welfare of Snowden still rest in the capable hands of the same regime.

The following is a list of officers: President, Mrs. M. A. Whitten; vice-president, Mrs. E. Y. Kelly; treasurer, Mrs. S. J. Scott; recording secretary, Mrs. John Barbee; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Frank Sturm.

The Snowden Parent-Teacher association has done a great deal of valuable work for the school this past year and has prospered and flourished as it justly deserves. They are hoping for just as much success in the new year's business.

Y. W. Dramatic Club.

At the meeting of the Y. W. Dramatic club Thursday, "The Tyranny of Tears" carried off the honors of the evening. The play was presented in two acts and both scenes will be presented at the open meeting at the Rex club of the Y. W. on the evening of May 26. The casts for the three scenes were as follows:

Mrs. Woodward..... Ruby Hamilton

Sacred Heart Recital.

A very successful recital was given by the pupils of the music and expression departments of Sacred Heart in the church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The following pupils made this affair such a pleasing one: Mildred Dillon, Emily May Hagarty, Marguerite Huffman, Aurelia Walsh, Lucille O'Connell, Curtis, Marjorie Benedetto, Alberta Coen, Mary Irene Allen, Lucille Brown, Carmen Brown, Maxine Hogan, Marie Hudson, Laura Fletcher, Evelyn Wicker, Mrs. Coleman, Clara Frances Smith, Martha Ann Moyle, Sophie Seron, Marie Seron, Mary Helen McKee, Anna Lawrence, Madeline Noyte, Louise Harwood, Norma Seifert, Josephine Carnaggio, Tina Seifert, William Brown, Gladys Black, Geraldine Cotter and Louise Stewart.

"The Land of Forgetfulness." The play, "Land of Forgetfulness," given by the pupils of the intermediate grades of Sacred Heart institute, Thursday evening, 8 o'clock, at the school home, proved to be unusually interesting and entertaining. It is under the direction of an expert in the history—a history so rich in heroism, so abounding in patriotism, and so replete with the lives of great men who reclaimed national honor.

Pope Association Elects. An interesting meeting was held Tuesday afternoon at Lefloy Pope school when the Parent-Teacher association elected officers. Preceding the business meeting there was a folk dance by little Miss Mary O'Donnell, and piano duet by Evelyn Albin and Audrey Hene.

Mrs. L. H. Mayer, the president of the association for the past year, was succeeded by Mrs. Crave Wells, who was elected by acclamation. Other officers were Mrs. O. Johnson, vice-president; Mrs. J. H. Mayer, treasurer; Mrs. David L. Oakley, secretary, and Mrs. A. A. Johnson, corresponding secretary.

A Victrola was purchased for the school.

During the social meeting that followed the business session, punch and cakes were served.

WOMEN SHAVE UNKNOWINGLY

HIGH IDEALS LAUNCHED BY SALON CIRCLE'S PRESIDENT

MRS. J. C. F. ELSENTHAL.

In formally accepting the offices and duties of the presidency of the Salon circle, at the annual breakfast given in celebration of President's Day, by members of that organization at the Hotel Gayoso Monday, Mrs. J. C. F. Elsenthal made an address which will not soon be forgotten by those who had the pleasure of hearing it.

In voicing her pride in the leadership of such a splendid body of active women, Mrs. Elsenthal said in part:

"I am glad to come to you when service, the watchword of the nation, when service is a harp of a thousand strings vibrating with the limitless possibilities of a God-given gift."

"The mission of the Salon circle is fulfilled not alone when we have studied the art, literature, and science of the world, but when their influence has permeated our lives, and when in our souls there is a response to the esthetic appeal of the beautiful, the wonderful, and the wise."

Mrs. Elsenthal is prominent in club activities throughout the state, having held a number of offices in various organizations. She is an ardent worker for any worthy cause, and inspires all who work with her with her enthusiasm and sympathetic leadership.

Before You Decide—

Mr. Man, on that new Spring Suit suppose you take a look around—this season, above all, will be a season of varied prices—woolens have declined within the past two months close to fifty per cent—however, not in time for the manufacturer to deliver his early Spring orders—therefore, the early buyers are holding the bag. Are you going to help them hold it?

We have taken advantage of this condition and refused to pay the high prices—we went into the market and bought our woolens at the lowered prices—these have been put into modish clothes by master designers, and today we invite your comparison of our $25 Suits for Men and Young Men.
